Drama Departments Presentation of Miser Opens Tonight in Ithaca College Theater; Play To Tour Rochester and Buffalo

After the success of last year's first major production, The Doctor in Spite of Himself, the Drama Department has decided to produce another Moliere comedy, The Miser. C. H. Randall will direct, and Vergiu Cornea will design the settings and costumes. The Miser will open in the College Theatre tonight, Wednesday, October 15th, and run through Saturday, the 18th. Following this, the show will embark on a two-week tour of the Rochester and Buffalo areas.

The Miser concerns an old skinflint who does his best—his unsuccessful best—to thwart young love. His only concern is for his hidden money, and he suspects everyone, including his servants and children, of plotting to steal it. In his greed, he attempts to marry a rich young girl who happens to be in love with the miser's son. His daughter is also involved in a romance to further complicate matters. Eventually the miser's money is stolen and the final scene shows his hilarious efforts to get it back.

Moliere's playwriting technique was to set up an uproarious situation, people it with amusing characters, and see what happens. The Miser is no exception. Called by many his funniest play, The Miser will be performed in a special modern adaptation by Miles Malleon, a well-known British actor and playwright. Although the play was first written almost three centuries ago, The Miser is as timely and as funny today as it was at its first performance.

The box office is open now for reservations. Student coupon #2 is to be used for all students and faculty members. It should be repeated that this coupon will admit a student free of charge.

WSG To Help Kim, I.C. War Orphan

The Women's Student Government is planning a fund-raising drive, October 17, 1958, for Ithaca College's War Orphan, Kim, Kim Sun Soo, who is from Korea, lives with her mother, a maid; grandfather, a guard; and brothers Choong Soo and Chun Soo, aged seventeen and thirteen. Soon Kim's mother will be the only source of income as her grandfather is getting too old to work.

"K" Day is an effort to raise money for Kim's support. The Women's Student Government has requested all students and members of the faculty and administration to give contributions. The freshmen girls will be stationed at various locations for this purpose.

Frosh Frolics Premiers Oct. 21

Again this year as in past years, the freshman women will present "Frosh Frolics." Each of the four departments will present a skit ten to fifteen minutes in duration. These short skits will be judged by Dean Howard, Dean Clark, Miss Mary Campfield of the library, Mr. Joseph Tague of the music faculty, and Miss Joanne Deisig of the speech faculty.

The head of "Frosh Frolics" is Carol Gordon. Under her, heading the various departments are Gayle Smith, advisor to the music students, Dot Reynolds, advisor to the phy. ed. and physio students, Janina Polchlopek, advisor to the

Pledging Rules and Regulations Stated by IFC

by Dick Fielding

The Inter Fraternity Council held a meeting last Wednesday, October 8, the purpose of which was to decide upon rules for pledging. Representatives at the meeting amended the constitution and revised many instructions for pledging. Here are the amendments and rulings which were made.

Delta Kappa Directory To be Distributed Soon

Delta Kappa has just announced that the eleventh edition of the 1958-1959 Ithaca College Student Directory should be ready for distribution about October 22nd. This year's directory will include phone numbers, addresses, department, and marital status of both the student body and the faculty. Also included in the directory are the I.C. sports calendar, the school calendar of events, and notes by President Dillingham, Dean Howard, and Dean Clarke. The printing of this year's directories was handled by Norton Printing Company. The directory was edited by Sal Mugavaro, assisted by Ira Wilson and Robert Boothroyd and compiled by members of the Delta Kappa Fraternity.

Although most students have paid for their directories on registration day, the directories will be on sale at 50 cents for those that wish to purchase one.

It was decided that all those who desire membership in a fraternity or sorority must place their bids in the IFC office by 5:00 p.m., on Wednesday, Oct. 29th. The silence period begins when the bids reach Dean Howard's Office. Bids will be mailed on Friday, Oct. 31 so that the bidders will receive them, on Saturday. On Monday, Nov. 3rd, pledging begins and will terminate December 13th.

It was decided that no organization could extend a bid to a student who is on probation or who has not attained at least a "C" average for the semester immediately preceding the date the bid is to be extended. In addition, it is required that all bids be in written form and be addressed and sealed on Wednesday of the sixth week of the semester. All bids must be sent to the advisor or be checked with the registrar's office for the proper index requirements. The advisor shall place all bids in respective envelopes for distribution on Thursday. All bids shall be mailed through the advisor's department. There shall be a silence period from the time the bids are handed in until the first pledge meeting as set by the council. Finally, no bid may be issued by any member of any organization by word of mouth, directly or indirectly, by hints or by implication without placing the offender subject to penalties as may be levied by the council.

Approximately the same rules hold forth concerning the actual pledging. It is said that any student who is not on probation and who has attained a "C" average shall be considered satisfactory. Should a pledge fail to meet the academic requirements, he shall remain inactive until he receives a satisfactory average for the semester immediately preceding the formal initiation.

The following rules were agreed

I. C. Students to Be Canvassed For United Fund

Ithaca College students will soon be canvassed for their first annual United Fund Drive. In order to make this campaign a success, the undivided support of every student and every organization is a must. It is expected that the campaign will be in the form of a competition, with either organizations competing against one another, or department's competition.

In either case full details will be announced in the next issue of the Ithacan.

The goal set for the United Fund among the student body will be $1,500.

Television "Scapegoat and Hero" Informs Robert F. Lewine in 2nd Fall Convocation

by Joe Malone

The second annual convocation of Ithaca College was held Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church at 10:30 a.m.

President Howard I. Dillingham introduced the Reverend Walter A. Dodds who gave the invocation, asking God to bless the gathering and the coming school year.

President Dillingham, on behalf of the faculty, welcomed the class of '62 and their parents. He introduced Mr. Herman E. Muller, Mr. Herman Steinkraus, and Mr. Jay Richard Kennedy, who extended that welcome on behalf of the trustees. Each mentioned the role that television would play in the educational work of this country and praised the pioneering work that was being done at the I.C. television department.

Mr. Robert F. Lewine, Vice President of the National Broadcasting Company and guest speaker, spoke about television being "all things to all men," even, to some extent, the "root of evil," a possible scapegoat for all the troubles of the United States such as: fires in the kitchen, poor eyesight, and juvenile delinquency. "Television," he said, "uses many different specialties in its work, but at last Ithaca College is making television 'a profession in itself.'" However, he cautioned the students that the profession was nerve-racking; in other mediums tensions run in cycles, but in television "every night is opening night, every hour is a challenge." Following the elaboration of this statement, Mr. Lewine wine went on to correct some of the misconceptions that the layman has concerning television, thus explaining the reasons behind studio policy. Competition, he said, was one of the reasons for the placing of one high-rated program against another. This competition, far from harmful, was the reason for the fine programming that can be seen on television. This quality, extends to both live and film shows, contrary to the notion that film shows were inferior to live presentations. Mr. Lewine, agreeing with the complaint about Westerns, said they would be eliminated in due time by the law of supply and demand. As for the complaint that commercial programs occupy the best time while intellectual programs were relegated to Sunday, Mr. Lewine said that it was the Commercial programs which paid for the quality presentations such as "A Course in Nuclear Physics for High School

Student Council Reporter

by Dave Scheuer

The student council held its second meeting Tuesday, Oct. 7th in the annex. The following includes action that was taken at the meeting.

FALL WEEK-END

Final plans are being made to have this fall week-end the best in the history of the college. Halloween holiday will tentatively feature the following events: Friday night will start the week-end off with the "Witches Hop." A dance and jam session will include a costume contest. All students are asked to be in costume for the dance so that the Halloween spirit will prevail. Saturday night will be the "Harvest Moon Ball" tentatively featuring Dick Ford and his thirteen-piece orchestra. Sunday morning, the "Witches Brew" or breakfast, will be served, and in the afternoon a variety show by Theta Alpha Phi will end the festivities. Although no definite price for tickets has been decided upon, the council hopes to have tickets sell for about $3.50.

The council intends to set up a committee to officially invite members of the faculty and administration to attend the fall week-end events. Members of the faculty and their wives are cordially invited as guests of the council to attend, as well as support, the week-end.

There will be no fraternity, sorority, or organizational parties or dances while any event of fall week-end is in process. Parties before or after events would be appreciated so that there will be no conflicts with the program of the week-end.

Along with council members, the following organizations will be in charge of the week-end:

Fall Week-end Chairman:

Steve Brown '61

Publicity: Delta Kappa and Delta Phi Zeta.

Decorations: Phi Epsilon Kappa and Phi Delta Pi.

Tickets: Delta Sigma Pi.

Chaperones: Phi Theta Pi.

Bands: Kappa Gamma Psi and Phi Mu Alpha.

Faculty Invitation Committee: Sigma Alpha Iota.

Contest Committee: To be announced.

Council Business

The council decided to continue its efforts to enforce the beanie regulations. Names will be taken and offenders will appear before the council.

The council tabled a motion to appeal to the administration not to enforce penalties to freshmen who did not attend the convocation. The short notice of the requirement to attend prompted the council to take this action. The motion may be brought before the council at the next meeting.

COMMENTS

The following is a list of all the representatives of the student council. These are YOUR representatives and your voice in college affairs:

Music: Luther Everly '59, Lee Barnett '60, Mary-Arlin '61.

Radio-TV Speech and Drama: Rose Militello '59, Al Eisenberg '60, Fred Douglas '61.

College of Arts and Sciences: Francia Gott '59, Steve Brown '61, Arthur Cohen '60.

Physical Education and Physiotherapy: Sue Tasca '59, Murray Stern '60, Cindy Jones '61.

In November, four freshmen will be elected to serve on the council.

The main objective of the council this month is fall week-end. Under the excellent leadership of Steve Brown, and with the help of the fraternities and sororities, the council is hoping to have not only a successful week-end, but also a week-end that will be remembered throughout the years. It's up to you, the students, to support and attend the week-end. In sixteen days, the council hopes that one of the most memorable week-ends in the history of the college will take place.

The next meeting of the council will be on Tuesday, Oct. 21st.

Meetings: Past

Hillel: At the recent meeting presided by President Ruben Marshall, Dr. Harcourt gave a very "You."

This and That

Congratulations to the Delta Kappa ushers who volunteered their services for the Convocation last Saturday. The casualness and appearance of the men with the red rose in the lapel added to the success of the convocation . . .

Listen to Marty's Grotto, making its debut tonight on WICB radio. Marty Edlefson, your host, will present one hour of enjoyable music as well as comments on the news and happenings at I.C.

Something to think about

. . . Instant coffee in the snack-bar . . . An oligarchy in the Sophomore class . . . Radio-tv students dropping coins on the library ceiling to frustrate those below.

The Cayugan announces that any student having informal snap-shots which they wish to be included in the yearbook should attach any pertinent information to the pictures and drop them in a box which will be set up in the library.

Dear Rabbe

Ithacan's Answer To Your Problems

Dear Rabbe,

I am a sophomore on the I.C. campus. I have trouble landing dates because these new freshman girls are drawing all the attention. What can I do to retain my dating power?

signed,
SHUT OUT

Dear Shut,

Your problem is not an uncommon one! So I wouldn't worry too much. Once the beanie comes off you won't be able to tell the freshmen girls from anyone else. For further information write for my free booklet No. 846, "The Sophomore Slump? And How To Combat It." Meanwhile, relax. The odds are still in your favor.

Dear Rabbe,

I have a problem that has plagued me for about three months. I hope you can help me.

I am a hula-hoop addict. Hula-hooping is on my mind constantly. The first thing I do when I get home is hula-hoop. This has gotten to such a point that I even dream about hula-hoops. I want to break this habit, but I don't have the will power. Can you help me?

signed,
Monkey on Back

Dear Monkey On,

Nope. If I figured out the answer to your problem I'd have to get rid of my hoop. And I don't want to get rid of my hoop. I like my hoop.

Dear Rabbe,

There's a unicorn in my garden. What can I do.

Signed,
UNHAPPY GARDENER

Dear UN,

Personally I think you're kidding me, but if you are telling me the truth for heaven's sake write a story about the thing. James Thurber made a fortune at it.

Dear Rabbe,

Lately I have had trouble with young freshmen girls coming up to me and pleading with me to make them "sound off." Tell me how I can keep these girls from bothering me.

signed,
BOTHERED

Dear Bothered,

A friend of mine had the same problem recently. He solved it by joining the Army to get away from it all. Maybe you know him. His name is Presley.

Dear Rabbe,

I am very overweight and for this reason I never have any dates. What can I do to make myself more appealing?

signed,
TUB

Dear TUB,

Either look for an overweight boy who has something in common with you, or plan on eating in the dining hall at 7:30 a.m., 12:00 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. At these times the line is so long that you will be discouraged from waiting. Missing these meals will soon trim you down. GOOD LUCK.

Dear Rabbe,

I have a terrible crush on one of my married teachers. What should I do?

Disillusioned

Dear Disillusioned,

Rabbe, the lovelorn expert, has the answer to all your problems. Write to Dear-Rabbe c/o Ithacan, Ithacan Mailbox, located in the snackbar.

Enthusiasm; Keep it up

According to the attendance at the Football game last Saturday it appears that the school spirit at Ithaca College is not quite dead. After a few years of bad luck and indifferent support from the fans the Ithaca College Bombers have been rewarded by victories in every game played so far this year and by packed stands at the home games despite the strong winds and cold weather, as was the case at last Saturday's game, when the Bombers romped over King College. Perhaps the string of victories has been just the shot in the arm the I.C. students needed to get back on the bandwagon.

With a little luck perhaps some of the present enthusiasm will continue throughout the school year and carry over into other school events such as Fall Weekend, which with student support will definitely be the greatest Fall Weekend in the college's history.

Alphabet Soup

Ken Murray

Look out Cortland, here we come. That's the word for this week, because coming up Saturday is the big game of the year against Cortland State. As sly old Casey Stengel often says, every game is a big one, and a team should play one game at a time. Well, Casey should know, but for a couple of weeks now tensions have been mounting, and excitement building in anticipation of the traditional clash with the school, "just down the road (Rt. 13) a piece."

The Bombers looked great last Saturday and displayed plenty of power, but regardless of how good they looked, Cortland will be far from a pushover. This will be a tough game. It is traditionally one of those games where you can throw away the book when the starting whistle blows. This fearless reporter firmly refuses to make any predictions, but one thing is clear as of now. It will be a hard fought football game that should provide plenty of glory for both teams, and more than a little excitement for the fans. If the Bombers do win . . . well hold on to your hats Saturday night.

Good news comes from the soccer team. After dropping their first three games, the boys came back last week to grab victories over Hartwick and Hamilton. The football Bombers are already assured of a winning season, and if the soccer Bombers can come through, this will be one of the greatest autumns ever for I.C. sports.

In case you haven't noticed, the weather is getting colder. Soon, there'll be plenty of snow and ice around, and ice, at least to some hearty souls, means hockey. Most people don't realize it, but last year I.C. was represented at least indirectly by a pretty good hockey team. Some fellows who enjoyed playing the game got together and formed a team on a club basis. They bought their own equipment, rented ice at Lyma Rink for practice and home games, set up a schedule, and started playing hockey. So far there's no word on a team for '58, '59, but in case anyone is interested in the idea get in touch with the Ithacan and you'll get plenty of support and publicity from this column.

Sport Sidelights . . . The Bomber football team ranks second in the nation and first in the east in defense among the small colleges. The team has alloted an average of only 12 yards per game . . . the freshmen footballers looked good in winning against the Cortland JV's last week . . . the Frosh look strong both along the line and in the backfield, and are exceptionally deep in material.

After Cornell's stunning 55-0 loss to Syracuse last Saturday the papers were full of quotes from Lefty James and others on the hill. Typical of the comments were: "We're not in the same league", and "You just can't compete against the pros". For a penetrating look into recruitment, de-emphasized football and the like, look up "the coach", an article in last week's (Oct. 13) sports illustrated. I think you'll find it most interesting.

Just another reminder . . . if you never see another football game again, go to Cortland on Saturday. We've got a team to be proud of, let's show them what that means. See you in Cortland on Saturday and in the Ithacan with more alphabet soup very soon.

I. C. Bombers Whip Kings 46-6; Travel To Cortland Saturday

by Joe Gillan

To top off the annual Homecoming event last week-end, the Ithaca College Bombers won their fourth straight football game with resounding victory over Kings College of Pennsylvania. Entering the contest on the crest of a 3 game winning skein, the I.C. grid mentor, Dick Lyon, expected some trouble from the Monarch's of Wilkes-Barre, but Kings' coach Jim Morgan and his crew left for home still smarting from the 46-6 defeat hung upon them by the undefeated Ithacans.

In a fourth and four situation in the opening period, an I. C. lineman was offside giving the visitors a first down in Ithaca territory. Kings capitalized and scored their only TD as Don Distasio arched an aerial to Alex Broghan for a 40 yard scoring play.

Al (Hurry) Cane heads toward goal in first period in last Saturday's 46-6 victory over Kings. Guido Mailo (64) blocks out King's defensenmen in background. Number 50 is Fred Kristeller

Al Cain broke the ice for Ithaca later in the quarter as he climaxed a 60 yard scoring thrust and ripped off the final 7 yards on an end run to tie it at 6-6.

The Bombers got a break early in the second quarter when they took over on the Kings 30 yard stripe due to a poor punt by George Rincavage.

It took just four plays for I.C. to break the tie as Dom Pacio raced 10 yards for the score and a 12-6 Ithaca lead. Gerry Neufang flipped a pass to Jim Rafferty in the end zone for the conversion.

From this point on it was all I. C. Dick Carmean scored his 5th TD of the year midway in the quarter, scampering 33 yards to paydirt making it 20-6.

Hustling Perry Noun led the next I. C. drive which covered 40 yards, in a sequence of 5 plays. Perry plunged from the two for the 6 points and Al "Hurry" Cane ran for the 2 pointer to up the advantage to 28-6 at the half.

Dom Pacio scored his second TD of the game early in the third quarter as he powered his way, to the "promised land" on a 33 yard run through half the King's defense.

Soph Frank De Renzo tallied next on a 6 yard run up the middle, and as the third quarter ended the count stood 40-6.

Dave Hogan plunged from the one in the closing canto to write fini to the scoring.

Ithaca meets its perennial foe Cortland next week in what should prove to be a real test for the I.C. gridmen. The Bombers will be trying to avenge a 32-13 defeat suffered at the hands of the Red Dragons last year.

NOTES & QUOTES:

The Bombers in racking up 46 points broke the existing record of 45 set back in 1934 against Hartwick and equalled against Sampson in 1948 . . . The "front wall rocks" limited Kings to a minus 7 yards rushing . . . Approximately 1000 fans attended the game . . . The Bombers rank number one in punting to date among the small colleges of the Northern Division of the Eastern College Athletic Conference, with an average of 40 yards. Ithaca also ranks first in total defense and in rushing defense . . . "It was our best game of the season" exclaimed the victorious Coach Dick Lyon after the game . . . Perry Noun, senior halfback from Rochester is fourth in rushing . . . Dom Pacio played his best game of the season, as the powerful 205 lb. halfback continually bulled his way through the King's defense with sheer power. Dom scored 2 TD's and was also outstanding on the defense.

and thus benefit themselves and the industry.

At a luncheon after the Convocation, President Howard I. Dillingham spoke about the tentative plans for the new property. More of the details will be published in the next issue of the Ithacan.

Soccer Squad Wins Pair At Titus; Murphy Excels

Titus Flats was the setting for two victories by the Ithaca College soccer team. Led by the brilliant footwork of co-captain George Murphy, the team defeated Hartwick on Wednesday and Hamilton on Saturday.

Wednesday, against Hartwick, played between Hamilton and the I.C. booters found it easy going for the first half. They scored three goals, one by Murphy and two by sophomore Bob Jessup. Jessup's continuous hustle and drive throughout this part of the game deserves much credit. Murphy had assists credited to him on each one of Jessup's goals. The teamwork of Carl Wambold and the entire squad contributed to this success during the first-half. During the third quarter, Hartwick came alive and scored two quick goals. Their first goal was disputed by the Ithaca goalie, claiming that the goal had not passed over the goal line. The game situation became very tight throughout the third quarter, but in the fourth quarter the Ithaca squad became alerted again and they scored two goals, Murphy taking credit for both of them. Coach "Doe" Yavits cleared the bench during the last quarter as the final score was 5 to 2.

Under overcast skies on Saturday, a hard-fought game was played between Hamilton and I.C. Although the home forces dominated the entire field of play, the excellent work of the Hamilton goalie kept the score tied at 0 to 0 until late in the fourth quarter when Dick Bona, outside left for Ithaca, hit the nets for a goal which was enough for the win. The outstanding defense by Bob Funk, Joe Drum, and Barry Sheffield of Ithaca proved to be too much for the Hamilton line. Ithaca had over twenty shots at their opposition goal before the fourth quarter. This game was a good show of team work and team play by the Ithaca College soccer team. The final score was Ithaca 1, Hamilton 0.

The season's record now stands at 2 wins, 3 losses for I.C. pitchers. The upcoming games with Brockport and the University of Rochester should prove to be the hardest test yet for the team, as both of these teams beat Ithaca last year.

Teachers" and "United Nations coverage during times of crises." Besides, the producers of quality shows, Omnibus for example, feel they can reach a greater range of viewers on Sunday than would be possible if they had to compete with commercial programs during the week.

Summing up the talk, Mr. Levine said that television was not only a mass medium, but also a commercial medium, and that through the means of quality programs, the tastes of the audience could be improved. Television needs new ideas and imagination, and Ithaca College students could supply both if they worked hard

Motorcade Sponsored by Newman Club, Physios

The Newman Club is sponsoring a free ride to the Cortland-I.C. football game this Saturday. Those wanting a ride should sign up at the desk in the annex on Wednesday on the first come, first serve basis. A charge of $1.00 is for admission to be paid on arrival to the game. The cars will leave at noon in front of the library.

Students wishing a ride to the football game in Cortland this Saturday should sign up with the physio representative in the annex.

For $1.50 a ride to the game and a ticket to get into the game can be purchased. The ride is one dollar. Normally the game admission is $1.00 but the physio department got a 50% discount on student tickets. The $1.50 must be paid when signing for the ride.

The bus will leave for Cortland, Saturday about noon in front of the library.

upon for rushing. It was decided that there would be no formal rushing period. Any member organization may at any time during the first semester or the second semester hold any approved social affair to which prospective members may be invited.

Certain stipulations concerning the faculty were also made. It was stated that no new faculty members may be invited to join any organization unless they have been residents of the college for at least ten weeks. It was also brought out that all organizations must observe the faculty request that no improper dressings or activities that make the pledge conspicuous shall be carried on outside of organization houses. No activity that is dangerous to a pledge may be engaged in at any time.

If any organization should violate or disregard the rules for rushing, bidding, and initiating, they may be accused by any member organization or any other recognized agencies on the campus who have proof of such alleged violation. Accusation may be presented to the President of the Council for consideration and action.

In the event that an organization should be found guilty of the violations just mentioned, specific penalties, where fixed, shall be applied. Where penalties are not specified, the council shall levy penalties appropriate to the offense. Bids issued in violation of the rules shall forfeit their bidding rights for one full year. Initiations in violations of the rules may not be revoked, but the council shall fix a penalty for violations as they may occur.

Specific rules were also determined for the students and the question of pledge violations. If a student accepts a bid and assumes the pledge of a fraternity before the set date, he shall give up his pledge and declare it in writing a letter to the IFC in care of the President of the College. After a student has given up his pledge, he shall be available for membership in any fraternal organization that may choose to give him a bid except that group that has violated the above rules. He shall not be eligible for a new bid from the offending organization until one school year has elapsed. In the event that a student should make an outright breaking of a pledge to an organization, he gives up his membership in another organization of the same classification for one calendar year. The president of the organization concerned must notify the Council of any student who breaks his pledge, who gives up his membership, or who is expelled. It should be noted at this point that the exact period of time for the penalties is to be determined by the IFC.
